
Graphic Design Intern (m/w/d)

ROKIN is a start-up in Munich and a participant of both the funding programme of the Strascheg Center for Entrepreneurship (SCE) at the University of Applied Sciences Munich and the Fellowship Programme of the Media Lab Bavaria. We are a young, creative and international team and we are looking forward to collaborating with like-minded people to jointly come up with new and even better ideas.

Our solution, "the digital engineer", is a technology platform that provides a key building block for quickly identifying new technologies which in turn significantly accelerates innovation processes in companies.

To strengthen our team and to further develop our platform, we are looking for a creative person, who is able to build on and advance existing ideas.

Your tasks:

- Optimisation of the website design
- Development of a Corporate Identity Profile
- Creation of an expressive logo and lettering
- Development of marketing and advertising material

Your qualifications:

- Student of design, communication design, web design or similar
- First experience in web design desirable
- Creative and open-minded
- Independent and pro-active working style

Your benefits:

- Innovative environment in the SCE start-up incubator
- Access to start-up and industry networks
- A relaxed, friendly work environment
- Impact - results that are implemented
- A wide range of topics within your own area of interest
- An opportunity to own the way you work (home office, flexible working hours)

As a startup at an early stage of its development and given the current state of economic uncertainty, internships and student projects will unfortunately not be paid.

That said, the moment you join, you will be an integral member of the team, have a genuine say in what you do, how and when – and become part of our success story.

We very much look forward to get to know you!

Kindly let us know in your Cover Letter for which time period you would like to do your internship with us and whether you are looking for a voluntary or mandatory internship.
