

We are looking for a programmer to come on board a young start-up company as we move to expansion with our proven business case.

The successful applicant will be in charge of front and back end app development as well as app and website maintenance.

We are a drinks delivery and pop-up bar service currently operating in Munich with an appetite for Germany-wide, then European-wide expansion.

The effort required at this stage is 8 hours per week but this would likely increase with expansion.

This position is for equity and at this time is not a paid position, it is a wonderful opportunity to get involved with an exciting idea and start up at an early stage, you would be involved in decision making and contribute to the direction of the company.

Ideally the candidate is both English and German speaking.

We are about to move into the franchise stage, a fantastic opportunity to learn along side us.
