

Entust

Just one click away from living your passion

Co-Founder wanted

Head of Visualization/Design

Entust is an innovative platform which enables every person in the world to have an income from sharing what they love, their most unique passion, without risks and without the need of a bank account. In other words, Entust changes the whole game and allows all of to make a living through our passion whilst connecting with others, regardless of your background. In addition, we use the newest technology to ensure full transparency. The world we used to know is drastically changing, will you co-create this new lifestyle?

„The world is in a constant state of change and the more technology advances, the more people are physically distant from each other. But what if we connect people from around the world? Let technology become our tool for growing, creating, and receiving value while we share with others what we love to do. Imagine what society would be“

Matthias von Schlieffen, Founder of Entust
