- Surround yourself with an ambitious and international team from firms such as BCG, Bain, Celonis; and 5+ countries
- Regular team events (think virtual cocktail mixing), an office dog and a fun atmosphere
- Work remotely or come to our beautiful central office at Sendlinger Tor

// Our Vision

At Casana, we believe that every company from start-up to enterprise should have access to world-class digital product development.

We offer on-demand IT specialists and managed teams of accomplished product builders from around the world with a finely tuned mix of soft and hard skills to address our clients' specific needs.

Unlike other platforms that merely mediate between talents and customers, we are deeply involved in vetting, matching, and building a lasting relationship with our talents.

Working with freelancers, expert partner agencies and in-house talent, our dynamic staffing approach allows us to provide the best candidates for every task – within hours and without compromise.

// About Casana

We are a small, but rapidly growing team of tech enthusiasts with VC backing and big ambitions to bring the alternative workforce to company near you. Our core team is in the heart of Munich while our network of product builders is spread across the world from Buenos Aires to St. Petersburg. Our customers include a mix of traditional SMB as well as some of Germany's fastest growing startups offering green energy, healthy food products and sport equipment.

Please reach out to us anytime if you have any open questions!

About Casana GmbH

More competent, more concrete & faster - with the experience of hundreds of experts, Casana supports companies in the implementation of digital projects.
